Students need to be regularly registered in the Master's Degree programme in International Relations, curriculum "International Politics and Economic Relations” of the University of Macerata. Should they have gaps in entry requirements, identified in the admission phase, they need to fill them before the departure.

B) TAKING EXAMS IN KIEV UNIVERSITY AND FINAL EXAM

Students must take the exams in the hosting University according to the calendar in use there. Failure to pass the exams in the required sessions does not entitle students to obtain the double degree.

The final thesis must be written in English. It is one for both courses and must be consigned in both Universities, with an eventual summary in the official language of the other University's country.

The final examination is in Macerata University. The members of Double Degree Committee are at least two professors of the University of Macerata and a professor of “Taras Shevchenko” National University of Kiev (the dissertation can be made by conference call).

C) FEES AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Participating Students are matriculated, enrolled and pre-enrolled according to 2021/2022 Administrative Student Guide, which also regulates all career documents, fees, grants and exemptions. Students pay enrolment fees exclusively in their country. It could be necessary to pay fees for issuing and sending costs for the Degree from the University of Kiev. Students will have to take care of all personal expenses, including accommodation, travelling, health insurance, the maintenance of their premises, and other possible expenses occurring during their stay for the program.
